NOTIFICATION—No. 5801J.

The 16th December 1895.—In continuation of the notification of the 12th April 1887 and the notification of the 3rd September 1894, No. 3831J., the following revised rules, regarding the administration of the District Chaukidari Reward Fund, which have been prescribed by the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal under the authority vested in him by section 65 of Act VI (B.C.) of 1870 as amended by Acts I (B.C.) of 1871, 1886, and 1892, are published for general information:—

1. The District Chaukidari Reward Fund constituted under section 42 of the Act, shall be treated in accounts as an Incorporated Local Fund, and the receipts and charges dealt with in accordance with the instructions contained in chapter 16 of the Civil Account Code.

2. The assets of the Fund will ordinarily consist of (a) fines and penalties levied under sections 8, 27 and 38, and (b) such sums as may be contributed to it by Government.

3. The Magistrate of the district shall be the administrator of the Fund.

(1) All bills against the Fund will be signed by him, the charges being regulated by the ordinary budget rules.

(2) He will also estimate for the receipts and charges of the Fund in the usual way, and submit such estimates along with his other estimates to the Accountant-General, who will deal with them like other estimates in accordance with the budget rules.

(3) The estimates will include any contribution required from Provincial Revenues, but such contribution cannot be drawn and credited to the Fund, except with the authority of the Accountant-General under special orders of Government in each case.

4. Subject to the provisions of section 3A, the power to fine chaukidars departmentally under section 38 is vested in the District Magistrate. A copy of every order passed under section 8 or 38 by any officer to whom the District Magistrate has delegated his powers under section 3A, shall be forwarded at once to the District Magistrate. On receipt thereof the particulars shall be entered in Register A prescribed by rule 8.

5. An appeal from any order imposing a fine under section 8 or 38 and passed by any officer other than the District Magistrate shall lie to the District Magistrate if lodged within 30 days from the date on which such order was communicated to the panchayat or chaukidar fined. Subject to the provisions of section 64, no appeal shall lie from any such order passed by the District Magistrate.

6. (a) All fines imposed under sections 8 and 38, and penalties imposed under section 27, and realised by a tahsildar appointed under section 46A, shall, on realisation, be at once deposited in the District or Subdivisional Treasury to the credit of the District Chaukidari Reward Fund by means of duplicate chalans.

(b) Penalties under section 27 realised by panchayats should be entered in their Register II (as prescribed by Rule VIII of the rules issued in the notification of the 12th April 1887), and sent at the close of each quarter to the officer in charge of the police-station, who will grant a receipt for the amount and deal with it under the preceding clause of this rule.

7. The Treasury Officer will retain one of the chalans and return the other, duly receipted, to the official depositing the money, who will forward it, together with the fine statements prescribed by rule 9, for entry in the accounts of the Fund.

8. Two registers, A and B, in the forms given in the appendix, shall be kept in the office of the District Magistrate (or of the District Superintendent of Police) showing the details of the operation of the above rules.

9. One clear week before the date fixed for the quarterly payment of chaukidars' salaries, the District Magistrate shall send to the officer in charge of each police-station a consolidated statement showing the fines recoverable from the chaukidars of such station. The officer in charge thereof shall thereupon at the time of the payment of salaries realise such fines and forward them under duplicate chalans for credit in the District or Subdivisional Treasury, together with any sums received by him from panchayats or tahsildars as penalties levied under section 27 of the Act. On receipt from the treasury of the duplicate chalans referred to in rule 7, he will return them, with the fine statement above mentioned, to the Magistrate with an explanation of his inability to recover any particular fine, or part thereof.

10. (a) The only officers authorised to grant rewards to chaukidars are District Magistrates, Subdivisional Magistrates, and District Superintendents of Police.

(b) Such rewards should not ordinarily exceed the sum of Rs. 5, but the District Magistrate may, if the state of the Chaukidari Reward Fund justifies it, sanction a reward of not more than Rs. 25. For any amount exceeding Rs. 25 the sanction of the Commissioner should be obtained.

(c) Rewards should, wherever possible, be paid by the District Superintendent in person, and in his absence by an officer not lower in rank than an Inspector. They should, as a rule, be presented at chaukidari parades, and in all cases with as much publicity as possible.

11. Rewards should ordinarily be given for—

(i) Information leading to the prevention or detection of crime.

(ii) Seizure or recovery of stolen property.

(iii) Arrest of offenders or absconders.

(iv) Personal courage shown in resisting dacoits or in capturing thieves or other offenders.

(v) Meritorious conduct not included in the above clauses which the District Magistrate, with the concurrence of the Commissioner, considers deserving of a special reward.

12. Fifteen days from the last day of each quarter the office of the District Magistrate (or of the District Superintendent of Police) shall prepare, in the form marked (C) in the appendix, an abstract account of the transactions of the Chaukidari Reward Fund during the said quarter. Such account shall be audited and compared with the Treasury accounts by an officer nominated for the purpose by the District Magistrate, to whom the result of such audit shall be duly certified. The abstract account shall also be checked and compared with the memorandum showing the balances and accounts of the Fund which the Accountant-General furnishes each quarter to the Administrator of the Fund.

Non-existence of reported rock to the eastward.

WITH reference to Notice to Mariners No. 307 of 1885, on the existence of a rock in approximately lat. 36° 59′ N., long. 122° 41′ E., on which the barque Comet is reported to have struck, the British Admiralty has given further notice (No. 656 of 1895) that this rock has recently been unsuccessfully searched for by H.M.S. Æolus; and from other information received it seems not improbable that the Comet struck on the reef extending from cape Macartney.

The rock has therefore been removed from the Admiralty Charts.

He frequently came into contact with the early English rulers, and Rajas Navakissen, Nanda Kumár and other native notabilities of the day, and the book is interesting as a memoir of the early years of English rule in Bengal. | May 20th | 156 | 12mo dy | 1st... | 1,500 | ditto ... | 1 0 0 | The Author, Bág-bázár, Basupárá, Calcutta. | The well-known story of Karameti Bái taken from the Bhaktamála, with modifications introduced for dramatic effect. Karameti was a Brahman girl, who, from early childhood, evinced a passionate love for Srí Krishna. After her marriage, she refused to live with her husband, escaped from his house and passed her life in religious contemplation. There is a good deal of low buffoonery in the play, which might have been omitted with advantage. | 3167 |
| July 22nd | 148 | 12mo dy | 1st... | 1,000 | ditto ... | 0 12 0 | ..... | A story in which all the members of an honest man's family meet together after having been separated from one another for years and subjected to an unparalleled series of hardships through the machinations of a dishonest relative of theirs. It illustrates the ultimate success of virtue and the downfall of vice. The plot is clumsy and uninteresting. | 3168 |
| May 19th | 120 | 12mo dy | 1st... | 1,000 | ditto ... | 0 10 0 | The Publisher. | A story of Bengali domestic life, in which a man ill-treats his parents and ultimately drives them from his house at the instigation of his wife. The wife then elopes with her paramour, and the husband renounces the world in remorse and disgust. She at last dies in the street as a pauper leper in the presence of her husband. The book is written from the standpoint of Hindu orthodoxy, and the writer, though a Mahommedan, possesses a thorough command over colloquial and idiomatic Bengali. | 3169 |

| July 20th | 112 | 12mo dy | 1st... | 500 | Printed. | 0 8 0 | The Author, Sambalpur. | The book contains five short pieces, of which the second and the third are in the form of the dramatic composition known in Sanskrit by the name Vithi. The first piece headed 'Melá and Sohelá' is a cooly story. Melá, a Kol girl of Bamrá, a Native State in Orissa, with her father and mother, is enticed away by a recruiter to a tea garden in Assam. Her lover Sohelá follows her thither after suffering great hardships. But on the day of his arrival, which was on a Christmas day, the girl, who had caught the fancy of the manager sáheb, was forcibly taken away from his embrace and ravished, notwithstanding the opposition offered by himself and her parents. They then bring a charge against the Sáheb and his two companions who helped him in committing the crime; but the charge is dismissed by the 'wretch' of an English Judge, and the parties who brought it sent to jail for having got up a false case. The girl thus left helpless pines away and dies in a short time. The story is said to be a true one and the real names of the parties have been suppressed for fear of the law. The second piece, a Vithi, is a story of the god Mahádeva's love-making with Sumukhi, the daughter of a king of Cooch Behár; while the third narrates how a king of Sambalpur once surprised a fairy named Sámlai in a solitary garden and gave up his life in order to follow her to Heaven. The fourth is a love story of which the scene is laid at a place near Puri in Orissa, now known as Chakratirtha. The last piece gives the traditions connected with the first worship by the Aryans of the alleged non-Aryan deity Vindhya Vásiní. | 3305 |

| June 25th | 75 | 8vo dy | 1st... | 750 | Printed. | 0 8 0 | ..... | An exposition of the tenets of the Rádhásvámí cult, with an account of the duties and responsibilities of its followers. The word Rádhásvámí means Lord of All. Sound is the first manifestation of the Lord and creator of the universe. It goes on creating different lokas or regions, and the universe which we see is the fourth one created by it. It is this universe that is presided over by Para Brahma. The true method of obtaining eternal bliss consists in making the creative principle, which is present in all, retrace its steps towards the Lord of All. | June 13th | 7 | 16mo rl | 1st... | 100 | ditto ... | ..... | Uttarpárá Hita kari Sabhá. | A short biography of the late Babu Pyárí Mohan Banerji of Uttarpárá. Babu Pyárí Mohan served as a Munsiff in the Allahabad District during the troublous days of the Sepoy Mutiny. By his tact and power of organization he collected and equipped a force of 800, men, whom he led in person against a band of insurgents under the command of some of the disaffected zamindars of the province. According to the Government records, quoted by his biographer, a pitched battle was fought, in which the ringleader of the rebels was killed, and the rebel force routed. He is, therefore, better known among his countrymen as the Fighting Munsiff. Latterly he left Government service, and practised as a pleader in the Allahabad High Court, where he rose to be the Senior Government Pleader. | 3534 |

The hero of the story, who starts life as a poor Sarkár in a Calcutta mercantile firm, becomes at last a millionaire through the favour of a Siddha Purusha (an adept.) In the second story, Hingana, the Author describes the manners and customs of the Gonds of Central India. The superstitious dread of witchcraft which these simple hillmen entertain, and the cruel fate that awaits any one suspected of practising it, as also the way in which this feeling is made use of by wicked persons in wreaking vengeance on an innocent enemy, have been very faithfully delineated in this story. | | | | | | | | | |

In the course of the article it is remarked incidentally that the unification of the different races in India will be possible only when oppression by the rulers reaches its maximum, and thanks to the Congress, that oppression is increasing day by day. It should be remembered that falls help the child in walking and in steadying his gait; and in the same way, the rebuffs which the Congress meets with at the hands of Government should be welcomed as causes which will ultimately help Indians in the formation of their national life. | April 27th | 106 | 16mo dc | 1st... | 700 | Printed | 0 7 0 | Ravíndra Náth Tágore, 6, Dváraká Náth Tágore's Lane, Calcutta. | Among the articles in this number those on 'Lorik's songs', which are sung by the milkmen of Behar, and a comparsion between the Marathi and the Bengali literature are the most important. The notes appended at the end speak in approbation of Ferozshah Mehta's Budget speech, and his speech on the Police Bill, and take a more or less hopeful view of the ultimate result of the election of Indians to the Legislative Councils. These Councils, it is remarked, worked like lifeless machines before the election of native members, who have enlivened them by importing strife and discord into their debates. And however disturbing to their equanimity, the officials should tolerate the innovation, which is, after all, a symptom of awakening political life among the Indians. | 3842 |
| May 28th | 90 | 16mo dc | 1st... | 750 | ditto ... | 0 7 0 | ditto ... | In two of the articles in this number the ill-treatment of natives by Europeans is referred to and the following remarks are made on the subject :—It is the duty of all patriotic natives to protect their fellow-countrymen from oppression, even at the risk of going to jail. When Indians feel that there are men ready to die for their sake, their notion of self-respect will develop. When the gorá (the British soldier) sees that there is danger in killing a nigger, he will satisfy his thirst for blood with other shikar. A man who, like Kesavlál or the Uriya zamindar assaulted by Mr. Radice, quietly, swallows the insult offered him by a European, is an object, not of pity, but of contempt. And it is not by whining and complaining, such as is indulged in by the native press, that this ill-treatment of natives by Europeans can be checked. Let only natives shew by their acts that they will tolerate such things no more, and Englishmen will be forced to chain the beast within them and learn to respect the former. | 3843 |
| June 28th | 112 | 16mo dc | 1st... | 750 | ditto ... | 0 7 0 | ditto ... | This number contains an interesting article on a village fair in Bengal and an article protesting against the recrudescence of Vaishnava literature with its pessimistic teachings, and the doctrine that life is not worth living and that Vairágya or renunciation of the world is the sole means of obtaining salvation. It also contains an account of the celebrated Lakshmí Bái of Jhansi, collected from native and independent sources. | 3844 |
| July 30th | 96 | 16mo dc | 1st... | 750 | ditto ... | 0 7 0 | ditto... ... | The political notes appended to this number deal with the question of the retention of Chitral, the faults and foibles of English character and Prince Nasrullah's visit to England, and on these topics the writer delivers himself as follows : The retention of Chitral will mean further troubles ; for Englishmen have a strange knack of offending other peoples by their haughtiness They flatter themselves with the belief that, wherever they set their foot they are welcomed by the people as their máhap, and yet such is the irony of fate, that in Egypt they are anxious to create a tribunal for trying summarily the offences committed by natives against their persons. While reviewing the book entitled "Wilson in Matabeleland," the English Spectator characterises 'delight in killing' as a normal trait in healthy human male animals ; and it is perhaps their partiality for this normal trait that makes Englishmen in India overlook native murders by Tom Atkins. | 3845 |

FINAL REPORT ON THE BHADOI CROPS IN BENGAL, 1895.

THE following is published for general information.

C. E. BUCKLAND,
Secretary to the Govt. of Bengal.

Dated the 30th December 1895.

DEPARTMENT OF LAND RECORDS AND AGRICULTURE, BENGAL.

Final Report on the Bhadoi Crops in Bengal, 1895.

N. B.—Returns have been received from all districts in the Lower Provinces except Champaran. In the case of Champaran the estimates given in the preliminary forecast issued in October last have been repeated.

1. Explanations.—The classification of crops adopted in this report is the same as that followed in the Financial Report on the bhadoi crops in Bengal for the year 1894, except that bhadoi til has been shown under a separate heading in order that complete returns for oil-seeds may be available for the provincial returns of agricultural statistics published by this Department. The present report furnishes a review of all bhadoi crops grown in these provinces, comprising bhadoi paddy millets, maize, other bhadoi cereals and pulses, other bhadoi food-crops (e.g., vegetables) and bhadoi non-food crops, including estimates of jute and cotton as shown in the special forecasts, with separate figures for bhadoi til and indigo.

2. Character of the season.—The prospects of the bhadoi crops are, generally speaking, determined by the rainfall from April to September, and especially by the rainfall from the middle of May onwards. In April the rainfall was generally above the normal. The character of the last monsoon season was fully described in the Final Report on the winter rice crop of Bengal issued on the 10th instant, and has been reproduced here for easy reference. In the month of May, the rainfall was less than the normal in South-West Bengal, in parts of North Bengal, in South Bihar, Orissa and Chota Nagpur, but in the Rajshahi, Jalpaiguri, Darjeeling and Pabna districts of North Bengal, in East Bengal and in North Bihar was above the normal.

In June, the rainfall was abnormal. In East and North Bengal, the fall was less than half the normal, in West and Central Bengal, and in parts of Bihar, it was deficient, but Chota Nagpur generally received the normal amount of rain, and Orissa, double the usual amount of rain.

In July, the rainfall was deficient in Central and South-West Bengal except Bankura, in South Bihar except Shahabad, in Orissa and in parts of Chota Nagpur. In Northern Bengal, North Bihar, and the Bhagalpur Division, the rainfall in this month was above the normal.

In August, Bihar and Orissa received sufficient rain, but in South-West, East and North Bengal except Darjeeling and Jalpaiguri, and in Chota Nagpur, rain was deficient. In September, the rainfall was below the normal in every district except Rangpur, Bogra, Saran, Champaran, and Puri.

In October it was also deficient except in Burdwan, Jessore, Khulna, Faridpur, Backergunge, Tippera, Chittagong, Cuttack, Manbhum, and Singhbhum.

The season up to September was on the whole favourable, though rain was deficient in some districts. Deficiency or excess of rainfall after that date would not affect the bhadoi crops to an appreciable extent. The estimates made in the first forecasts, however, have been considerably altered, and in the case of Muzaffarpur, Darbhanga, Bhagalpur and Palamau, the outturn is reported to have been affected for the worse by unfavourable weather at the close of the bhadoi season.

Floods are reported from Jalpaiguri, Bogra, Pabna, Dacca and Mymensingh.

3. Area cultivated.—The total area cultivated with bhadoi crops this year appears, from the district estimates appended to this note, to have been 15,670,200 acres, against 15,913,500 acres estimated to have been sown in 1894. The present estimated acreage is thus only 1·5 per cent. less than that of last year. The decrease is nominal and is noticeable chiefly in the areas under bhadoi paddy (decrease of 2·3 per cent.) and under "other non-food crops" (decrease of 2·9 per cent.). The contraction in the area under bhadoi paddy was due to want of rain at the time of sowing. The estimates show an increase in the area sown with maize and other (bhadoi) cereals and pulses, the area of the latter being 3·4 per cent. in excess of that of last year.

It will be seen from the district returns that bhadoi food-crops of the current year occupy about 77 per cent. of the total area under bhadoi crops, bhadoi paddy alone occupying about 45 per cent. of the whole area.

There are insignificant differences between the estimates of area as given in the present returns and those given in the first forecast issued in October last, which are due to a revision of estimates by District Officers.

4. Character of the crop.—From the statement appended to this note, it will be seen that, taking the bhadoi crops of these provinces as a whole, 6 out of 45 districts, viz., Rangpur, Tippera, Saran, Champaran, Purnea, Angul and Khondmals, return an average crop of 16 annas, 26 districts return crops varying from 12 to less than 16 annas, and 13 from 9 to less than 12 annas. Taking the estimates of bhadoi paddy by themselves, it will be found that ten* districts report a 16-anna crop, 21 districts crops varying from 12 to less than 16 annas, and 14 districts, viz., all the districts of the Burdwan Division and all the Presidency districts except Khulna, and the Rajshahi, Bogra,

* Dinajpur, Rangpur, Tippera, Patna, Saran, Champaran, Purnea, Angul and Khondmals, Hazaribagh and Manbhum.

Jalpaiguri, Chittagong and Lohardaga districts report crops varying from 8 to less than 12 annas; Hooghly being the only district where the crop has been injured to the extent of 8 annas. A comparision of the present estimates of outturn with those given in the first forecast of October shows that five* districts report better crops, 22 districts equal crops, and 18 districts worse crops. As compared with estimates of last year, the outturn of the present year is reported to be better in the case of 18 districts, equal in 3 districts, and worse in 24 districts. On consideration of all the estimates quoted above, the bhadoi crops of these provinces, taken as a whole, may be said to be nearly as good as that of last year. It appears to be necessary to reduce the outturn as anticipated in the preliminary forecast by one anna, and to estimate a 14-anna crop for these provinces. The outturn, though below the average, appears to have been sufficient to keep up plentiful food-stocks resultant from the abundant harvests of last year.

* Bankura, Rajshahi, Dacca, Shahabad and Cuttack.

The outturn of bhadoi paddy is estimated to be about fourteen annas for the province; the jute crop was estimated in the final forecast issued in August last to yield an outturn of seventeen annas; and the outturn of the early cotton crop is shewn in the cotton report published on the 2nd instant as twelve annas. The outturn of indigo has been probably less than that of last year.

4. Prices.—The prices of common rice and other food-grains continue steady generally in these provinces.

The area as brought under cultivation of bajra, mandua, maize, other cereals, indigo and other non-food crops were either equal to or greater than that of last year, and may be attributed to seasonable rainfall at the special localities where they were cultivated, and the outturns were better or worse according to the distribution of subsequent rainfall in those localities. | |

(1) Letter from the Government of Bengal, Public Works Department, No. 5692A., dated 12th November 1895, submitting to the Government of India, Public Works Department, the statement of expenditure on stores in the General and Irrigation Branches of the Public Works Department in Bengal for the year 1894-95.

(2) Letter from the Government of India, Finance and Commerce Department, No. 1426S.R., dated 25th March 1895, pointing out that, as it is understood several of the principal engineering firms in India now possess the apparatus necessary for the proper testing both of the raw material and of the finished product, the fullest use should be made, subject to the prescribed precautions, of the liberty to procure supplies in India.

(3) Resolution on the operations of the Public Works Department, Bengal, in 1893-94 in respect of purchases of stores in England and locally.

REMARKS.—In fulfilment of the promise made in paragraph 6 of the Resolution read above, the following information is compiled and published, showing the operations of the Public Works Department of this Province in 1894-95 in respect of purchases of stores in England and locally.

2. The total cost of stores entirely obtained from England, was Rs. 1,45,966, as against Rs. 2,62,492 in 1893-94. The following is a list of the principal items:—

| | | Rs. | |
|---|---|---|---|
| A | Two Double-barrel rotary force pumps, with 60 revolutions, discharging 30 and 10 gallons, respectively, per minute. | 1,128 | These were required for supplying filtered water to bath-room and Dhobie's platform in the Presidency General Hospital, Dallanda. |
| | Two boilers with two cranes | 22,491 | These were required for the two Marchant's dredgers built at the Cuttack Workshops for use in the Orissa Canals in the Brahmini-Byturni and Balasore Divisions respectively. The boilers were sent out whole, i.e., rivetted together, but the mountings which had to be removed during transit were fitted on at the above Workshops. The cranes with necessary boiler connections were sent out in parts, which were fitted up at the same Workshops. |
| | Lathe 6" centre for use in Cuttack Workshops. | 5,050 | This was sent out from England in parts and fitted up in the Cuttack Workshops. |
| B | Rolled iron joists ... | 33,190 | These were required for use in the East Block, Indian Museum; South Calcutta Hospital, Bhawanipore; filtered water-supply, Presidency General Hospital; Central Press, Dharamtolla; additional barracks, Bhagalpur Central Jail, and the Durgauti Viaduct. |
| | T-iron bars ... ... | 14,745 | These were obtained for use in the roof of the Eastern Block, Indian Museum, Calcutta. |

| | | Rs. | |
|---|---|---|---|
| B | Bed-plates ... ... | 1,901 | These were required for the above buildings as well as for the South Calcutta Hospital at Bhowanipore. |
| | Leather beltings ... | 2,823 | These were required for use in the Dehri and Cuttack Workshops, and in the Fouracre's dredgers in the Brahmini-Byturni and Dehri Workshops Divisions. |
| | Candles ... ... | 2,121 | These were obtained for use in the Jablockhoff system of lighting in the Eden Gardens, Calcutta. |
| | Cretonne ... ... | 1,033 | These were required for Government House, Calcutta. |
| | Silk cloth and embroidery | 21,358 | |
| | Galvanized corrugated iron... | 6,885 | This material is largely used for sheds, latrines, walling, &c., and is consequently indented for regularly to meet the many demands for it. |
| | Pig iron ... ... | 3,872 | These materials were brought on to stock when sent out, and were used as required on various works executed at the Government Workshops at Sibpur, Dehri and Cuttack. |
| | Angle-iron ... ... | 5,521 | |
| | Round „ ... ... | 3,586 | |
| | Plate „ ... ... | 6,097 | |
| | Flat „ ... ... | 2,556 | |
| | T-iron ... ... | 1,585 | |
| | Mild steel sheet ... | 3,060 | |
| | Chain iron ... ... | 2,179 | This was obtained for use in ferry boats and dredgers in the Brahmini-Byturni Division. |
| | Cement ... ... | 2,517 | These materials were obtained for use in the various new works and repairs executed to Government buildings. |
| | Paints ... ... | 2,263 | |

None of the articles named in group A, nor of the materials detailed under group B, could have been entirely manufactured in India, nor are they, as far as Government knows, even sent out roughly made up to be finished at workshops in this country.

3. The total cost of stores of European manufacture purchased in India on the score of urgency was Rs. 38,684, as against Rs. 35,540 in 1893-94. The principal items which make up this total are the following:—

| | Rs. | |
|---|---|---|
| Rolled-iron joists ... | 17,723 | These joists were urgently required for servants' quarters north of Government House, Calcutta; bedroom, Belvedere; additions and alterations to Custom House, Calcutta; additions to Subdivisional Court at Bettiah; buildings in the Northern Drainage and Embankment Division; annual repairs to Writers' Buildings; quadrennial repairs to Bethune College, Sanskrit College, Hindu School and Small Cause Court, Calcutta, Magistrate's residence at Howrah, and other buildings in the Second Calcutta Division, and for works and repairs in the Nadia Rivers Division. |
| T-iron bars ... ... | 7,325 | These were required for servants' quarters, Indian Museum, Calcutta; bedroom, Belvedere; servants' quarters, north of Government House, Calcutta; and masonry reservoir in the Viceroy's Body-Guard stables. |
| Galvanized iron pipes ... | 1,909 | These pipes were required for the water-supply to the Midnapore Central Jail. |
| Plate iron ... ... | 1,530 | These materials had to be purchased locally for the Sibpur Workshops in connection with urgent orders, which could not have been foreseen and which could not without causing delay and inconvenience have been kept in abeyance to allow of the articles being indented for from England. |
| Round „ ... ... | 1,074 | |
| Flat „ ... ... | 3,725 | |
| Square „ ... ... | 1,414 | |
| Zinc sheets ... ... | 1,506 | |
| Yellow sheeting ... | 2,472 | |

Taking the India Office prices, and adding freight and other incidental charges, the cost of these articles, if purchased in England, would have been only Rs. 36,352, so that Government paid 6·4 per cent. more through buying them in India than it would have paid in England. The corresponding loss in 1893-94 was 11 per cent.

4. The total cost of stores manufactured in India, partly from imported material and partly from indigenous material, and substituted for stores formerly imported, was Rs. 1,17,034, as against Rs. 85,315 in 1893-94. The principal items were as follows:—

| | Rs. | |
|---|---|---|
| Wrought-iron bridge ... | 3,824 | This was procured from a private recognized firm, who made it of imported raw materials, for bridging the Dhobijhora stream on the 16th mile of the Kurseong-Matigara Road. |
| Mud barges ... ... | 12,000 | These were required for use in the Balasore Division and were made in the Sibpur Workshops from material obtained partly through the Secretary of State and partly from the local market. |
| Iron work for roofing ... | 2,676 | These were prepared in the Dehri Workshops for constructing the roof of the Munsifi at Gopalganj. |

| Boilers ... ... | 5,000 | These were for the steam launch Pioneer. |

5. The policy prescribed by the Government of India in their Resolution No. 1426S.R. of 25th March 1895, quoted above, continues to receive the attention of the Local Government. The principal firms in Calcutta who were asked to report whether they are able to supply any of the articles mentioned in paragraph 3 of this Resolution, subject to the conditions (a) that they are not imported into India in a finished state, (b) that machinery exists for the application of sufficient tests as to quality and workmanship, and (c) that the price does not exceed the cost at which such articles can be procured through the Secretary of State for India, have done so with the result that certain additions have been made to the list of firms eligible to tender. But the general absence of proper testing appliances is noticeable, and it is hoped that other firms desirous of tendering for Government work will see their way to provide themselves with these very necessary adjuncts to their workshops.

ORDER.—Ordered, that a copy of this Resolution be published in the Supplement to the next issue of the Calcutta Gazette.

Ordered also that a copy of this Resolution be forwarded to the Bengal Chamber of Commerce, the Calcutta Trades' Association, and the Bengal National Chamber of Commerce.

By order of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal,

F. J. JOHNSTONE,

Secretary to the Government of Bengal.

The mean pressure, temperature, &c., are deduced from the traces of the Barograph and Thermograph.

The maximum and minimum temperatures are obtained from self-registering thermometers. All the thermometers are verified and the readings have been corrected to a standard constructed and verified at the Kew Observatory. They are exposed under a thatched shed open at the sides and are suspended four feet above the ground.

The barometer readings are corrected approximately to those of the standard Newman's No. 86, formerly at the Surveyor-General's Office.

The hygrometric elements are obtained from Tables III, IV, and V of the official tables computed in the Meteorological Office, and based on Regnault's modifications of August's formula.

The directions and the movement of the wind are taken from the trace of a Beckley's anemograph.

The mouth of the rain-gauge is one foot above the ground.

SUMMARY OF THE METEOROLOGICAL AND RAINFALL OBSERVATIONS TAKEN IN BENGAL FOR THE WEEK ENDING 8 A.M., SATURDAY, THE 28TH OF DECEMBER 1895.

FINE settled weather of ordinary north-east monsoon character has again prevailed in Bengal during the week under review, and the meteorological changes which have taken place in Bengal from day to day have usually been small and unimportant up till within the last day or two of the period, when owing to the formation of a cyclonic storm in the extreme south of the Bay conditions in Bengal became rather less settled than they had been. On the 22nd of December, or the first day of the week under review, the barometric changes were exceedingly small, and the distribution of pressure was fairly normal. Temperature was usually falling by small amounts, and the night temperatures were from about 2° to 6° in defect, while the day temperatures were in excess by 1° or 2°. Steady northerly winds were reported over the whole province, the sky was practically cloudless, and rainfall was entirely absent. On the 23rd both pressure and temperature were rising slowly, but otherwise there was no change in conditions. On the 24th a slow fall of pressure set in, but the temperature changes were irregular. On the 25th pressure again fell slowly, but temperature also fell; on the 26th pressure began to rise, while the temperature changes again became irregular; on the 27th the pressure changes were irregular, and at all the southern stations a fall was reported, while at the northern stations pressure was rising; temperature on the other hand had generally increased briskly, though the night temperatures were still in defect. On the 28th, or the last day of the week, pressure had fallen moderately over the whole province, and both temperatures and humidity were increasing briskly. Conditions, however, over the greater part of Bengal still remained of ordinary north-east monsoon character up to the close of the week.

From about the 25th instant, however, conditions began to change in the Bay. On the morning of that day wind velocity at 8 A.M. at Diamond Island had increased to 30 miles an hour, but generally over the Bay conditions did not point to any disturbance forming. On the 26th the average velocity of the north-east winds at Diamond Island had equalled 22 miles an hour, and the 8 A.M. velocity was 34 miles, or a moderate gale, and conditions seemed to point to disturbed conditions in the south-east of the Bay. On the 27th at the same station the average wind velocity had again increased to 27 miles an hour, and at 8 A.M. it equalled the large amount of 38 miles, while at the same time pressure was falling slowly along the Madras Coast and in Ceylon. Hence it was certain there was an area of squally or stormy weather existing in the extreme south or south-east of the Bay. On the 28th a fall of pressure exceeding a tenth of an inch occurred at the stations on the South Madras Coast; wind velocities also increased rapidly in the south of the Bay, and winds were probably more or less cyclonic in direction. Hence a cyclonic storm, though perhaps of not very definite nature, existed in the extreme south-west of the Bay on this day, the centre being probably to the east of Ceylon. The storm was giving very heavy rain along the Madras Coast and in Ceylon, and its influence was felt as far north as Orissa, where skies became overcast on the 28th, while the squally weather extended well into the centre of the Bay. This storm afterwards drifted in a westerly direction across the extreme south of the Peninsula and over Ceylon. As the storm was rather widespread, it even influenced the weather to a small extent in South Bengal, and on the 28th temperature and humidity were increasing rather rapidly, while the amount of cloud had also increased considerably, showing that conditions were somewhat unusual and disturbed.

The occurrence of a storm in the Bay at the end of December is most unusual. During the present century no single instance of the occurrence of a storm in the Bay in the second half of December has ever been recorded, and it has been hitherto accepted that the storm or cyclone season in the Bay, and even in the extreme southern part of it, ceases on the 15th of December. This, however, has now been shown to be incorrect.

Pressure.—Notwithstanding the formation of a storm in the extreme south of the Bay at the end of the week, the mean pressure in Bengal has been in very distinct excess. At many of the western stations the excess has equalled 0·04″, but in South-East and East Bengal it has generally only averaged about 0·01″ or 0·02″.

Temperature.—The night temperatures have been unusually low almost throughout the week, though the day temperatures have been in slight excess, or more nearly normal. The average mean temperature of the whole province for the week has been no less than 1·7° below the normal. The actual average temperatures registered in the province and their variation from their normal values are, however, best seen in the table below, where the average temperature data for nine selected stations in different districts of the province are given :—

NOTIFICATION—No. 5801J.

The 16th December 1895.—In continuation of the notification of the 12th April 1887 and the notification of the 3rd September 1894, No. 3831J., the following revised rules, regarding the administration of the District Chaukidari Reward Fund, which have been prescribed by the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal under the authority vested in him by section 65 of Act VI (B.C.) of 1870 as amended by Acts I (B.C.) of 1871, 1886, and 1892, are published for general information:—

1. The District Chaukidari Reward Fund constituted under section 42 of the Act, shall be treated in accounts as an Incorporated Local Fund, and the receipts and charges dealt with in accordance with the instructions contained in chapter 16 of the Civil Account Code.

2. The assets of the Fund will ordinarily consist of (a) fines and penalties levied under sections 8, 27 and 38, and (b) such sums as may be contributed to it by Government.

3. The Magistrate of the district shall be the administrator of the Fund.

(1) All bills against the Fund will be signed by him, the charges being regulated by the ordinary budget rules.

(2) He will also estimate for the receipts and charges of the Fund in the usual way, and submit such estimates along with his other estimates to the Accountant-General, who will deal with them like other estimates in accordance with the budget rules.

(3) The estimates will include any contribution required from Provincial Revenues but such contribution cannot be drawn and credited to the Fund, except with the authority of the Accountant-General under special orders of Government in each case.

4. Subject to the provisions of section 3A, the power to fine chaukidars departmentally under section 38 is vested in the District Magistrate. A copy of every order passed under section 8 or 38 by any officer to whom the District Magistrate has delegated his powers under section 3A, shall be forwarded at once to the District Magistrate. On receipt thereof the particulars shall be entered in Register A prescribed by rule 8.

5. An appeal from any order imposing a fine under section 8 or 38 and passed by any officer other than the District Magistrate shall lie to the District Magistrate if lodged within 30 days from the date on which such order was communicated to the panchayat or chaukidar fined. Subject to the provisions of section 64, no appeal shall lie from any such order passed by the District Magistrate.

6. (a) All fines imposed under sections 8 and 38, and penalties imposed under section 27, and realised by a tahsildar appointed under section 46A, shall, on realisation, be at once deposited in the District or Subdivisional Treasury to the credit of the District Chaukidari Reward Fund by means of duplicate chalans.

(b) Penalties under section 27 realised by panchayats should be entered in their Register II (as prescribed by Rule VIII of the rules issued in the notification of the 12th April 1887), and sent at the close of each quarter to the officer in charge of the police-station, who will grant a receipt for the amount and deal with it under the preceding clause of this rule.

7. The Treasury Officer will retain one of the chalans and return the other, duly receipted, to the official depositing the money, who will forward it, together with the fine statements prescribed by rule 9, for entry in the accounts of the Fund.

8. Two registers, A and B, in the forms given in the appendix, shall be kept in the office of the District Magistrate (or of the District Superintendent of Police) showing the details of the operation of the above rules.

9. One clear week before the date fixed for the quarterly payment of chaukidars' salaries, the District Magistrate shall send to the officer in charge of each police-station a consolidated statement showing the fines recoverable from the chaukidars of such station. The officer in charge thereof shall thereupon at the time of the payment of salaries realise such fines and forward them under duplicate chalans for credit in the District or Subdivisional Treasury, together with any sums received by him from panchayats or tahsildars as penalties levied under section 27 of the Act. On receipt from the treasury of the duplicate chalans referred to in rule 7, he will return them, with the fine statement above mentioned, to the Magistrate with an explanation of his inability to recover any particular fine, or part thereof.

10. (a) The only officers authorised to grant rewards to chaukidars are District Magistrates, Subdivisional Magistrates, and District Superintendents of Police.

(b) Such rewards should not ordinarily exceed the sum of Rs. 5, but the District Magistrate may, if the state of the Chaukidari Reward Fund justifies it, sanction a reward of not more than Rs. 25. For any amount exceeding Rs. 25 the sanction of the Commissioner should be obtained.

(c) Rewards should, wherever possible, be paid by the District Superintendent in person, and in his absence by an officer not lower in rank than an Inspector. They should, as a rule, be presented at chaukidari parades, and in all cases with as much publicity as possible.

11. Rewards should ordinarily be given for—

(i) Information leading to the prevention or detection of crime.

(ii) Seizure or recovery of stolen property.

(iii) Arrest of offenders or absconders.

(iv) Personal courage shown in resisting dacoits or in capturing thieves or other offenders.

(v) Meritorious conduct not included in the above clauses which the District Magistrate, with the concurrence of the Commissioner, considers deserving of a special reward.

12. Fifteen days from the last day of each quarter the office of the District Magistrate (or of the District Superintendent of Police) shall prepare, in the form marked (C) in the appendix, an abstract account of the transactions of the Chaukidari Reward Fund during the said quarter. Such account shall be audited and compared with the Treasury accounts by an officer nominated for the purpose by the District Magistrate, to whom the result of such audit shall be duly certified. The abstract account shall also be checked and compared with the memorandum showing the balances and accounts of the Fund which the Accountant-General furnishes each quarter to the Administrator of the Fund.

(1) Subject to any extension of time that the Local Government may see fit to grant, the Promoters shall substantially commence the construction of the said tramway within three calendar months from the date of the original Order which this Order supersedes, and shall complete and equip the same in every respect for opening and working for traffic to the satisfaction of the Local Government within two years from the date of that Order.

Dates for commencing and completing the tramway.

(2) In the event of the said Promoters failing to commence the construction, and to complete and equip the tramway as provided in the first paragraph of this clause, then and in any such case the Local Government shall be at liberty to arrangements with any other person or persons for the construction of a tramway from Tarkessur to Mugra, and in the event of this Order being revoked by reason of the said Promoters failing to complete and equip, and open for traffic, the said tramway within the period of two years from the date of this Order, the Local Government shall have the option of taking over all the permanent-way and rolling-stock of the tramway at a reasonable valuation to be determined by the Local Government, and in the event of the Local Government exercising this option, all the other works and buildings of the tramway may be dealt with under the provisions of the Act relating to the discontinuance of tramways, as a tramway whereof the discontinuance has been proved to the satisfaction of the Local Government.

If, however, the Local Government do not desire to exercise the option of taking over the permanent-way and rolling-stock of the tramway as herein provided, then and in such case the tramway including the permanent-way, the rolling-stock, and all the buildings and works of every kind connected therewith may be dealt with under the provisions of the Act relating to the discontinuance of tramways as a tramway whereof the discontinuance has been proved to the satisfaction of the Local Government.

7. The tramway authorised by this Order is a single line, with necessary passing places running along its own alignment from the town of Tarkessur to the East Indian Railway station of Mugra, within the district of Hooghly. with three spans (girder) of 40 feet each resting on masonry abutments and piers. After crossing the Ghea, the line will run in a northerly direction and after skirting the village Majinan will reach Gopalpur, at 16¼ mile, which is the site selected for serving the important village of Bhastara and its neighbourhood. From Gopalpur the line will run eastward skirting the south side of Dwarbasinee (at 21¼ mile) to Mahanad (at 23¾ mile). From the latter place the line will continue to run eastward over the high waste land known as Jamai Jangal up to the 28th mile, where it will leave the Jangal and, taking a north-easterly direction, cross the East Indian Railway line through its bridge No. 102 about ½ a mile on the up side from its Mugra station, and reach that station by a curve passing through the well-known gunj of Mugra and across the river Kunti.

10. The tramway shall be constructed on a gauge of 2 feet 6 inches, and land for borrowpits will be provided on one side only, but the total width taken up will be sufficient to allow of a future double line.

Standard dimensions to be observed.

11. Without prejudice to the powers conferred on the Local Authorities by section 14 of the Act, as regards the type of cars and carriages to be used on the tramway and the brakes and other appliances with which they are to be furnished, the standard weights and dimensions of rails, sleepers, rolling-stock and other equipment of the tramway are to be as set forth and described in the Second Schedule attached to this Order The Local Government, however, reserves to itself the right to revise the said standard weights and dimensions, and the special sanction of the Local Government must be obtained before the materials, etc., required for the tramway are ordered.

The maximum angle of curvature should only be worked to in special cases where the adoption of an easier curve would be impracticable or involve considerable extra expense. Under very exceptional circumstances, where it may appear necessary that this rule should be relaxed, the matter should be referred to the Government of India for orders.

The maximum angles of curvature given above do not apply to curves in station yards.

II.—BALLAST AND PERMANENT-WAY.

Ballast—

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| (1) | Minimum width of ballast at rail level ... ... | 6 feet. |
| (2) | „ depth of ballast below sleepers ... ... | 6 inches. |

N.B.—These minimum dimensions may be relaxed in the case of a line being opened to traffic before the banks have settled.

Sleepers—

|---|---|---|
| (1) | No platform walls; earth covered with cinders or gravel to be made up to rail level ... ... ... | ..... |

Buildings—

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| (2) | Minimum horizontal distance of any building from centre of track at passenger platform ... ... ... | 20 feet. |
| (3) | Minimum horizontal distance from centre of track to any structure in the vicinity of a passenger platform (but not on a platform), within a height of 10 feet from rail level ... | 8 „ |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| (5) | Minimum horizontal distance from centre of track to pillars, columns, lamps or similar isolated structures on platforms | 9 feet. |

Roofs, overbridges, &c.—

|---|---|---|
| (6) | Minimum height above rail level, for 5 feet from centre of track of tie-rods or underside of any continuous roof or covering in passenger stations ... ... ... | 16 feet 6 inches. |
| (7) | Minimum height above rail level for 5 feet from centre of track for passenger foot-bridges crossing the line in stations ... ... ... ... | 16 „ 6 „ |

Reporter on Economic Products.

Published under the authority of the Government of India in the Revenue and Agricultural Department.

The first five volumes and Vol. VI, Parts I, II, III & IV of the Dictionary are now ready at the Office of Superintendent of Government Printing, No. 8, Hastings Street, Calcutta, and will be supplied to non-subscribers on receipt of the price for the complete set, which is Rs. 45 in India, and 3 guineas in England (exclusive of the Index, for which a separate charge will be made): packing and postage, in India, 8 annas per volume; for England, Rs. 2-6 per volume. For copies bound in half calf, or half morocco, Rs. 6 and 8 shillings, respectively, will be charged extra for the whole set.

The Dictionary is intended to deal with the products of India—animal, vegetable, and mineral; each product being treated after a uniform plan, the paragraphs of which give the scientific, vernacular, and European names; habitat or source; history; properties and uses (both chemical and industrial); trade statistics; markets, &c. The work is arranged alphabetically according to scientific nomenclature, but commercial and important vernacular names are also given as cross references, so that little difficulty need be experienced in finding the account of a product even when its scientific name is unknown to the reader.

An important feature of the Dictionary consists in the fact that derived information is in every instance given under quotation marks, and with a reference to the original publication. Numerous contributors have, however, furnished the results of new discoveries and confirmed the vernacular names, so that the Dictionary is not only a complete compilation of published information, but has been brought abreast of the most recent inventions and discoveries.

Volume I contains the letters A and B, and consists of 559 royal octavo pages; Vol. II embraces the letter C in 689 pages; Vol. III contains the letters D, E, F and half of G; Vol IV latter half of G to middle of L; and Vol. V contains the latter half of L to end of O: Vol VI (which will consist of four parts), Part I, contains letters P to R. The whole work will, it is expected, be completed in nine volumes (including Parts II to IV of Vol. VI) during the current year; but a tenth volume may also be issued, consisting of an Index to all the vernacular and other names contained in the Dictionary. The Index will practically be a Glossary of the vernacular and European names of the plants, animals and minerals of India, and as such will be a work of reference, which, it is hoped, may prove of considerable value.

Before the undertakers proceed to open or break up any street, railway, tramway, bridge, sewer, drain or tunnel, they shall give to the local authority, company or person under whose control or management the same may be, or to their clerk, surveyor, or other officer notice in writing of their intention to open or break up the same not less than three clear days before the date upon which they propose beginning such work:

Provided that in cases of emergency (which shall be stated in writing) arising from defects in any of the electric lines or other works, they shall only be required to do so as soon as possible after the beginning of the work or the necessity for the same shall have arisen.

Streets, &c., not to be broken up except under superintendence.

8. (1) No street, railway, tramway, bridge, sewer, drain or tunnel shall, except in the cases of emergency aforesaid, be opened or broken up, except under the superintendence of the local authority, company or person having the control or management thereof, or of their officer, and only on or from such date and according to such plan as shall be approved of by such local authority, company or person or their officer, or in case of any difference respecting such plan, then according to such plan as shall be determined by the Chief Presidency Magistrate.

(2) It shall be lawful for such Magistrate, on the application of the local authority, company or person having the control or management of any such sewer or drain, or their officer, to require the undertakers to make such temporary or other works as they may think necessary for guarding against any interruption of the drainage during the execution of any works which interfere with any such sewer or drain:

Provided that, if the local authority, company or person having such control or management as aforesaid, or their officer refuse or neglect—

(a) to attend at the time fixed for the opening or breaking up of any street, railway, tramway, bridge, sewer, drain or tunnel, after having had such notice of the undertakers' intention as aforesaid; or

(b) to propose any plan for breaking up or opening the same; or the undertakers may perform the work specified in such notice without the superintendence of such local authority, company or person, or their officer.

(c) to superintend the operation;

Streets, &c., broken up to be reinstated without delay.

9. Such undertakers shall, when they open or break up the road or pavement of any street, railway, tramway, or bridge, or any sewer, drain or tunnel, with all convenient speed—

(a) complete the work for which the same shall be broken up; and

(b) fill in the ground, reinstate and make good the road or pavement, or the sewer, drain or tunnel so opened or broken up; and

(c) carry away the rubbish occasioned thereby; and

(d) cause the same at all times, whilst any such road or pavement, or sewer, drain or tunnel shall be so opened or broken up, to be fenced and guarded; and

(e) cause a light, sufficient for the warning of passengers, to be set up and maintained against or near such road or pavement, or sewer, drain or tunnel where the same shall be open or broken up, every night during which the same shall be continued open or broken up; and

(f) keep the road or pavement which has been so broken up in good repair for three months, after replacing and making good the same, and for such further time, if any, not being more than twelve months in the whole, as the soil so broken up shall continue to subside.

Penalty for delay in reinstating streets, &c.

10. In cases where such undertakers do, when they open or break up any street, railway, tramway, bridge, sewer, drain or tunnel—

(a) neglect to give such notice as aforesaid; or

(b) give such notice at a time or in a manner different from that which shall have been approved of or determined as aforesaid; or

(c) neglect to make such temporary or other works as aforesaid, when so required, except in the cases in which the undertakers are hereby authorised to perform such works without any superintendence or notice; or

(d) make any delay in completing any such works, filling in the ground, or reinstating and making good the road or pavement, sewer, drain or tunnel so opened or broken up; or

(e) neglect to carry away the rubbish occasioned thereby; or

(f) neglect to cause the place where such road or pavement, or sewer, drain or tunnel has been broken up to be fenced, guarded and lighted; or

(g) neglect to keep the road or pavement in repair for the space of three months next after the same shall have been made good, or such further time as aforesaid:

they shall, after having received notice thereof,—

(i) forfeit to the persons having the control or management of the street, railway, tramway, bridge, sewer, drain or tunnel, in respect of which such default shall have been made, a sum not exceeding fifty rupees for every such offence; and

(ii) further forfeit a sum not exceeding fifty rupees for each subsequent day during which any such delay as aforesaid shall continue after they shall have received such notice.

In cases of delay other parties may reinstate and recover the expenses.

11. (1) Whenever any such delay or omission as aforesaid shall occur, the local authority, company or person having the control or management of the street, railway, tramway, bridge, sewer, drain or tunnel, in respect of which such delay or omission shall occur, may cause the work so delayed or omitted to be executed.

(2) The expense of executing the same shall in every case be repaid to such local authority, company or person by the undertakers.

Restriction on breaking up streets, &c.

12. (1) Nothing in this Act shall authorise or empower the undertakers to open or break up any street, railway, tramway, bridge, sewer, drain or tunnel without the consent of the local authority, company, or person, by whom such street, railway, tramway, bridge, sewer, drain or tunnel is repairable, unless in pursuance of special powers in that behalf inserted in the license under this Act or with the written consent of the Local Government.

(2) The Local Government shall not in any case insert any such special powers in any license or give any such consent, until notice has been given to such local authority, company or person by advertisement or otherwise as the Local Government may direct, and an opportunity has been given to such local authority, company or person to state any objections they may have thereto.

Restrictions as to above-ground works.

13. (1) Notwithstanding anything in this Act, the undertakers shall not be authorised to place any electric line above ground, along, over, or across any street without the express consent of the Local Government, and the Local Government may require the undertakers to forthwith remove any electric line placed by them contrary to the provisions of this section, or may cause the same to be removed and recover the expenses of such removal from the undertakers in manner hereinafter specified.

(2) In cases where any such electric line has been placed above ground by such undertakers, the Chief Presidency Magistrate, on complaint made and if of opinion that such electric line is, or is likely to become, dangerous to the public safety, may, notwithstanding any such consent as aforesaid, make an order directing and authorising the removal of such electric line by such person and upon such terms as such Magistrate may think fit.

Power of undertakers to alter position of pipes and wires.

14. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act and of the license under this Act authorising them to supply electricity, the undertakers may alter the position of any pipes or wires under any street or place authorised to be broken up by them, which may interfere with the exercise of their powers under this Act, on previously making or securing such compensation to the owners of such pipes or wires, and on complying with such conditions as to the mode of making such alterations as may before the commencement of such alterations be agreed upon between the undertakers and owners, or in case of difference as may be determined in manner prescribed by the license authorising the undertakers to supply electricity, or, when no such manner is prescribed, as may be determined by arbitration.

(2) Any local or other public authority, company or person may, in like manner, alter the position of any electric lines or works of the undertakers, being under any such street or place as aforesaid, which may interfere with the lawful exercise of any powers vested in such local or other public authority, company or person in relation to such street or place, subject to the like provisions, conditions and restrictions as are in this section contained with reference to the alteration of the position of any pipes or wires by the undertakers.

Compensation for damage.

15. (1) In the exercise of the powers in relation to the execution of works given them under this Act, or by any license under this Act, the undertakers shall cause as little detriment and inconvenience, and do as little damage as may be, and shall make full compensation to all bodies and persons interested for all damage sustained by them by reason or in consequence of the exercise of such powers.

(2) The amount and application of such compensation in case of difference shall in any event be determined by arbitration.

Power to enter premises for ascertaining quantities of electricity consumed, or to remove fittings, &c.

16. Any person duly authorised by the undertakers may at all reasonable times enter any premises to which electricity is or has been supplied by the undertakers for the purpose of—

(a) inspecting the electric lines, meters, accumulators, fittings, works and apparatus for the supply of electricity belonging to the undertakers; or

(b) ascertaining the quantity of electricity consumed or supplied; or

(c) removing, where a supply of electricity is no longer required, or where the undertakers are authorised to take away and cut off the supply of electricity from any premises, any electric lines, meters, accumulators, fittings, works or apparatus belonging to such undertakers:

Provided that the undertakers shall in every case repair all damage caused by such entry, inspection or removal.

Undertakers not to prescribe special form of lamp, &c.

17. The undertakers shall not be entitled to prescribe any special form of lamp or burner to be used by any company or person, or in any way to control or interfere with the manner in which electricity supplied by them under this Act or by reason of any license is used:

Provided that no company or person shall be at liberty to use any form of lamp or burner, or to use the electricity supplied to them for any purpose, or to deal with it in any manner, so as to unduly or improperly interfere with the supply of electricity supplied to any other company or person by the undertakers, and if any dispute or difference arises between the undertakers and any company or person as to the matters aforesaid, such dispute or difference shall be determined by arbitration.

Obligation on undertakers to supply electricity.

18. In cases where a supply of electricity is provided in any part of an area for private purposes, every company or person within that part of the area shall, except in so far as it is otherwise provided by the terms of the license authorising such supply, be entitled, on application, to a supply on the same terms on which any other company or person in such part of the area is entitled under similar circumstances to a corresponding supply.

CHAPTER II.

Charges and Recovery.

Charges for electricity.

19. The undertakers shall not, in making any agreements for a supply of electricity, show any undue preference to any company or person, but, save as aforesaid, they may make such charges for the supply of electricity as may be agreed upon, not exceeding the limits of price imposed by or in pursuance of the license authorising them to supply electricity.

Recovery of charges, &c.

20. If any company or person neglect to pay any charge for electricity or any other sum due from them to the undertakers in respect of the supply of electricity to such company or person, the undertakers may—

(a) cut off such supply; and

(b) for that purpose cut or disconnect any electric line or other work through which electricity may be supplied; and until such time as such charge or other sum, together with any expenses incurred by such undertakers in cutting off such supply of electricity as aforesaid, are fully paid.

(c) discontinue the supply of electricity to such company or person;

Recovery of rents, &c.

21. If any company or person supplied with electricity or with any electrical meter or fittings by the undertakers neglects to pay to the undertakers the rent due for such electricity, or the rent or money due to the undertakers for the hire or fixing of such meter or fittings, or any expenses lawfully incurred by the undertakers in cutting off the electricity from the premises of such company or person, the undertakers may recover the sum so due with full costs of suit in any Court of competent jurisdiction.

Incoming tenants not liable to pay arrears of rent for electricity.

22. In cases where any company or person supplied with electricity by the undertakers leaves the premises where such electricity has been supplied, without paying the electricity rent, or meter rent already due, such undertakers shall not be entitled to require from the next tenant of such premises the payment of the arrears left unpaid by the former tenant, unless such incoming tenant has undertaken with the former tenant to pay or exonerate him from the payment of such arrears.

CHAPTER III.

Electric and Telegraph Lines.

Electric lines, &c., not to be subject to distress in certain cases.

23. Where any electric lines, meters, accumulators, fittings, works or apparatus belonging to the undertakers are placed in or upon any premises not being in the possession of the undertakers for the purpose of supplying electricity under this Act, or by reason of any license under this Act, such electric lines, meters, accumulators, fittings, works or apparatus shall not be subject to distress or to the lessor's remedy for rent of the premises where the same may be, nor be taken in execution under any process of the Civil Court or any proceedings in insolvency against the person in whose possession the same may be.

Provision for the protection of telegraph lines.

(2) The undertakers or their agents shall not, in the exercise of the powers conferred by this Act or by any license, lay down any electric line, or do any other work for the supply of electricity, whereby any telegraph line is, or may be, injuriously affected.

(3) The undertakers or their agents shall, before any such electric line is laid down or work is done within ten yards of any part of a telegraph line, (other than repairs or the laying of connections with mains, where the direction of the electric lines so laid down crosses a telegraph line at right angles at the point of shortest distance, and continues the same for a distance of six feet on each side of such point), not more than twenty-eight, nor less than seven clear days before commencing such works, give written notice to the telegraph authority specifying the course and the nature of the work, including the gauge of any such electric lines.

(4) The undertakers or their agents shall conform with such reasonable requirements, either general or special, as may from time to time be made by the telegraph authority for the purpose of preventing any telegraph from being injuriously affected by the said work.

(5) Any difference arising between the telegraph authority and the undertakers or their agents, with respect to any requirements so made, shall be determined by the Local Government, and the order of the Local Government thereon shall be final.

(6) In the event of any contravention of, or wilful non-compliance with, this section by the undertakers or their agents, such undertakers shall be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred rupees for every day during which such contravention or non-compliance continues, or if the telegraphic communication is wilfully interrupted, to a fine not exceeding five hundred rupees for every day on which such interruption continues:

Provided that nothing in this section shall subject the undertakers or their agents to a fine under this section, if they satisfy the Court trying the case that the immediate execution of the work was required to avoid an accident, or otherwise was a work of emergency, and that they forthwith served on the telegraph authority a notice of the execution of the work, stating the reason for executing the same without previous notice.

(7) For the purposes of this section a telegraphic line shall be deemed to be injuriously affected by a work, if telegraphic communication by means of such line is, whether through induction or otherwise, in any manner affected by such work, or by any use made of such work.

Bills introduced into the Council of the Governor General for making Laws and Regulations, or published under Rule 22.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT.

The following Bill was introduced in the Council of the Governor General of India for the purpose of making Laws and Regulations on the 2nd January, 1896:—

No. 1 of 1896.

A Bill to amend the Criminal Tribes Act, 1871.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Criminal Tribes Act, 1871; It is hereby enacted as follows:— XXVII of 1871.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Criminal Tribes Act, Amendment Act, 1896; and Title and commencement.

(2) It shall come into force at once.

2. After section 1 of the Criminal Tribes Act, 1871, the following section shall be inserted, namely:— XXVII of 1871.

Addition to section 1, Act XXVII, 1871.

"1A. In this Act the words 'tribe,' 'gang' and 'class' shall be deemed to include any portion of a tribe, gang or class."

Definition of tribe, gang and class.

3. After section 17 of the said Act the following section shall be added, namely:—

Addition of new section after section 17, Act XXVII, 1871.

"17A. (1) The Local Government may establish reformatory settlements for children and may separate and remove from their parents and place in such a reformatory settlement the children of the members of any tribe, gang or class which has been declared to be criminal.

Power to place children in reformatory settlements established for children and to apprentice them.

(2) For every reformatory settlement for children established under sub-section (1) a Superintendent shall be appointed by the Local Government.

(3) The Superintendent of a reformatory settlement for children shall be deemed to be the guardian within the meaning of Act No. XIX of 1850 (concerning the binding of apprentices), of every child detained in such settlement; and such Superintendent may, if he shall think fit, and subject to any rules which the Local Government may make in this behalf, apprentice such child under the provisions of the aforesaid Act."

4. For section 19 of the said Act the following section shall be substituted, namely:—

Substitution of new section for section 19, Act XXVII, 1871.

"19. (1) Any person violating a rule made under clause (4), clause (5) or clause (6) of section 18 shall be punishable with rigorous imprisonment for a term which may extend, on a first conviction, to one year, on a second conviction, to three years, and, on any subsequent conviction, to five years, and shall also, whether on the first or any subsequent conviction, be liable to whipping.

Penalties for breach of rules.

(2) Any person violating a rule made under any other clause of section 18 shall be punishable with rigorous imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months, or with fine, or with whipping, or with all or any two of those punishments; and, on any subsequent conviction for a breach of any such rule, with rigorous imprisonment for a term which may extend to one year, or with fine, or with whipping or with all or any two of those punishments."

Addition of two new sections after section 19, Act XXVII, 1871.

5. After section 19 of the said Act the following sections shall be added, namely:—

section Act of 1860 section Act X

Enhanced punishment for certain offences by members of criminal tribe after previous conviction.

"19A. Whoever, being a member of any tribe, gang or class which has been declared criminal, and having been convicted of an offence punishable under Chapter XII of 1860. Chapter XVII of the Indian Penal Code with imprisonment of either description for a term of three years or upwards, shall be guilty of any offence punishable under either of those chapters with imprisonment of either description for a term of three years or upwards, shall, in the absence of special reason to the contrary, to be specified in the judgment of the Court, be punished, on conviction for the second time of any such offence, with rigorous imprisonment for a term of not less than seven years, and, on conviction for the third time of any such offence, with transportation for life.

Punishment for members of criminal tribe found under suspicious circumstances.

"19B. Whoever, being a member of any tribe, gang or class which has been declared criminal, is found in any place under such circumstances as to satisfy the Court that he was about to commit, or aid in the commission of, theft or robbery, or that he was waiting for an opportunity to commit theft or robbery, shall be punishable with rigorous imprisonment for a term which may extend to seven years, and shall also be liable to fine."

Repeal of certain portions of Act XXVII of 1871.

6. The following portions of the said Act are hereby repealed, namely:—

(a) in section 7, the words "or any part thereof," "or of any part thereof" and "or any part of it;"

(b) in section 8, the words "or of such portion thereof as is directed to be registered;"

(c) in section 14, the words "or any part thereof;"

(d) in section 15, the words "or such part thereof as is to be so settled or removed;" and

(e) in section 17, the words "or any part thereof."

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

THE object of this Bill is to make in the law relating to the control of criminal tribes certain amendments which experience of the depredations of, in particular, the Sansiahs of the North-Western Provinces has shown to be very necessary. The Criminal Tribes Act (XXVII of 1871) already contains provisions of considerable severity; but it is thought that the altogether exceptional circumstances of the case are such as to justify still more drastic measures in order to strengthen the hands of the Government in coercing and, if possible, reforming the members, and more especially the rising generation, of such tribes, composed as they in fact are of criminals of the worst type, whose only occupation is crime.

2. Section 2 of the Bill proposes to add after section 1 of Act XXVII of 1871 an additional section defining the words "tribe, class or gang" so as to make it clear that the provisions of the following sections may be applied to a portion, as well as to the whole, of a tribe. Certain consequential but purely verbal amendments are made by section 6 of the Bill.

3. As the law at present stands, it is open to question whether the children of a proclaimed criminal tribe can be sent to a reformatory settlement otherwise than with their parents' consent or as a punishment for breach of discipline. The additional provision which section 3 of the Bill purports to insert after section 17 of the Criminal Tribes Act, 1871, takes power to remove at discretion such children from their parents' control, to detain them in a reformatory settlement with a view to their more effectual reformation, and to apprentice them under the provisions of Act XIX of 1850 so as to prevent their returning after discharge to their former surroundings and almost certainly relapsing into crime.

4. By section 4 of the Bill it is proposed to substitute for section 19 of the Act a new section providing specially severe penalties for the contravention of such of the rules made thereunder as are directed against absconding from a reformatory settlement.

5. The first of the new provisions contemplated by section 5 of the Bill is based upon section 75 of the Indian Penal Code, but fixes yet severer penalties in the case of members of a proclaimed tribe convicted more than once of certain heinous offences, and further provides that the enhanced punishments specified shall ordinarily be inflicted on such incorrigible offenders. The remaining provision is intended to go beyond section 401 of the Indian Penal Code by rendering any member of a proclaimed criminal tribe who is found under such circumstances as to satisfy the Court that he was about to commit, or aid in the commission of, theft or robbery, or was awaiting an opportunity to commit theft or robbery, liable to the same punishment as is prescribed by that section.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT.

The following Bill was introduced in the Council of the Governor General of India for the purpose of making Laws and Regulations on the 2nd January, 1896:—

NO. 2 OF 1896.

A Bill to amend the Indian Emigration Act, 1883.

XI of 1883. WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Indian Emigration Act, 1883; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Amendment of section 105, Act XXI, 1883.

1. In section 105, sub-section (f), of the said Act, for the words "under a contract" the words "under, or with a view to entering into, an agreement" shall be substituted.

Addition of new section after section 105, Act XXI, 1883.

2. After section 105 of the said Act the following section shall be added, namely:—

Power to declare whole or part of Act and rules inapplicable to Natives of India engaged for Her Majesty's Government to labour for hire in any country beyond the sea.

"106. The Governor General in Council may, from time to time, by notification in the Gazette of India, declare that all or any of the provisions of this Act or the rules thereunder shall not apply, or shall apply subject to such conditions, modifications or restrictions as to the Governor General in Council may seem expedient, in the case of Natives of India departing out of British India under an agreement made with, or on behalf of, Her Majesty's Government to labour for hire in any country beyond the sea:

Provided that no notification under this section shall be issued unless the Governor General in Council is first satisfied that the fair treatment of Natives of India so departing out of British India has, by rules or otherwise, duly been secured.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

THE attention of the Government of India has recently been directed to a case in which some Natives of India were induced to quit British territory by land, to proceed to a foreign port and there to enter into agreements to labour for hire in East Africa, to which country emigration is unlawful It being uncertain whether there existed at the time of departure from British India any agreement to emigrate to East Africa, a doubt arises as to the applicability of section 105 of the Indian Emigration Act (XXI of 1883) to such a case, and the object of section 1 of this Bill is to remove similar doubt for the future.

2. It is at the same time deemed desirable to facilitate as much as possible the recruitment of Indian labourers for employment under favourable circumstances beyond the sea, as, for example, on the Uganda Railway, and it is thought that the restrictions imposed by Act XXI of 1883 may well be removed when the employer abroad is Her Majesty's Government and the Government of India can readily satisfy themselves that fair treatment will be secured for the employés. By section 2 of the Bill, therefore, it is proposed to take power for the Governor General in Council to declare all or any of the provisions of the Act and the rules thereunder inapplicable in such cases.

NEW ZEALAND, NORTH ISLAND—MANUKAU HARBOUR.

Alterations in South channel and in North head beacon lights.

THE British Admiralty has given notice (No. 668 of 1895) that, owing to the extension of the shore bank westward of South head, Manukau harbour, the northern of the three beacons on North head has become useless as a leading mark, and the beacon has consequently been removed and the light (fixed white), previously shown from it, discontinued.

There are now therefore only two leading beacons on North head, each showing a fixed white light.

Also, that the north end of Emma bank has extended to the eastward, and the two beacons on North head in line lead over the edge of that bank.

Vessels entering Manukau harbour by South channel should keep the beacons on North head in line until Kaitaraki point is open of South head, and then bring the northern of those two beacons well open eastward of the southern one.

SUMMARY OF THE METEOROLOGICAL AND RAINFALL OBSERVATIONS TAKEN IN BENGAL FOR THE WEEK ENDING 8 A.M., SATURDAY, THE 4TH OF JANUARY 1896.

At the close of the previous week the main feature of meteorological interest was the existence of a cyclonic storm or an area of stormy disturbed weather in the extreme south of the Bay. It was, however, too far distant to materially affect the weather in Bengal. On the 28th, or the last day of the previous week, the small storm or stormy area was probably to the east of the extreme south of the Peninsula and Ceylon, and its centre was probably to the south-east of Negapatam, while it was advancing in a westerly direction. The small storm on the morning of the 29th instant was apparently more to the westward than on the 28th, and it was to the south of the Peninsula, while on the 30th it had again advanced westwards, and was probably in the Arabian Sea. It gave rather heavy weather in the south-west of the Bay for one or two days, when stormy weather with heavy squalls was reported, while also heavy general rain was received and several stations registered about five inches of rain and upwards.

In Bengal conditions remained to a great extent unaffected by the disturbance in the south of the Bay. A brisk fall of pressure, however, with a distinct increase of temperature occurred on the 29th, or the first day of the week under review, but on the 30th pressure was recovering. A distinct increase in the cloud proportion, however, occurred on the 30th and 31st, probably due to the gradual advance northwards of slightly disturbed conditions due to the storm, and on the latter date also pressure was increasing by small amounts. On 1st January, however, the sky began to clear again, though a brisk fall of pressure occurred, while the temperature changes were small and variable. On the 2nd the effects of the disturbed weather had apparently quite passed away, and skies again became cloudless over practically the whole of the province, while a small increase of pressure and moderate decrease of temperature had occurred. The changes of temperature and pressure on the 3rd were of no importance, but on this date pressure was still in decided defect, and temperatures in moderate defect, though this defect was entirely confined to the night temperatures, which were from about 2° to 6° below the normal, while the maximum or day temperatures were about 1° to 2° in excess. On the 4th instant pressure had risen briskly, and was in distinct excess, while the mean temperature was usually about 1° to 2° in defect.

Pressure.—The mean pressure for the week has been slightly below the normal at the great majority of stations. A few stations in Bihar and in the west of the province, however, have registered very small excess amounts. The variations were, however, slightly irregular in amount, though in the great majority of cases they have not exceeded 0·01" or 0·015."

Temperature.—The average mean temperature has been in very slight excess in Bihar and East Bengal, but in other divisions usually defective temperatures have been registered, the defects being largest in Orissa and North Bengal. For the whole province the average mean temperature has been in defect of the normal by 0·4°.

The actual average temperatures registered in the province for the week and their variation from their normal values are, however, best seen in the table below, where the average temperature data for nine selected stations in different districts of the province are given :—

The results of observations at the Alipore Observatory are not rigorously comparable with the registers of past years (at the Park Street Observatory). The barometer is about 3 feet higher at Alipore, and, other things being equal, reads therefore ·003 lower. The diurnal range of temperature is also greater at Alipore, and the mean temperature apparently about ⊖2·3 lower; and, finally, the thermometer which furnished the record of temperature at the Surveyor-General's Office during 20 years and upwards is found to read 0·6 higher than the Kew standard thermometer, which is the standard of reference at the present Observatory.

The mean pressure, temperature, &c., are deduced from the traces of the Barograph and Thermograph, and from observations made at 6h., 10h., 16h. and 22h.

The maximum and minimum temperatures are obtained from self-registering thermometers. All the thermometers are verified and the readings have been corrected to a standard constructed and verified at the Kew Observatory. They are exposed under a thatched shed open at the sides and are suspended four feet above the ground.

The barometer readings are corrected approximately to those of the standard Newman's No. 86, formerly at the Surveyor-General's Office.

The hygrometric elements are obtained from Tables III, IV, and V of the official tables computed in the Meteorological Office, and based on Regnault's modifications of August's formula.

The directions and the movement of the wind are taken from the trace of a Beckley's anemograph.

The mouth of the rain-gauge is one foot above the ground.
